TWO LARGE AUDIENCES

Greeted the Southern Kid Minstrels at the Lyric Last Night.

The Southern Kid Minstrels were greeted by two large and appreciative audiences at the New Lyric Theatre last night. This organization is composed of home boys, and they gave meritorious performances last evening. The singing was good, the jokes new, and the first part scene with the electrical arch very pretty.

The following program was rendered; every number was a good one and received with applause:
Opening Chorus, "Motor King"—Entire Company.

"Phoebe Jane"—Lee Farrar.
"Glad I Met You"—Fred Schnoor.
"Under the Yum Yum Tree"—Geo. Sandifer.

"Night and Day"—Kelly Farrar.

"Lucy Ella"—Carl Beihler.
Grand Finale, "When Mr. Yankee Doodle Comes to Town"—Entire Company.

The olio consisted of motion pictures, Princeton and Yale in polite vaudeville, and Sherman and Thresto in a neat turn.

Music for the occasion was furnished by Trice's Orchestra. The people of the city are proud of this orchestra. They are undoubtedly one of the big drawing cards at the Lyric.
